the City Yesterday and SIx in the

S purbs-Fifteen New Cases

Reported, Eight of them

Outside the City.

to Follow the Example of the Citizens' Relief Committee and

Wind Up its Noble and Humane Work.

Another freeze and we shall be free from eartily desire. The Howards are preparing wind up their affairs and to that end all te foreign physicians and nurses have been alled in and will be paid off and discharged, he remaining cases of fever to be looked

OUTSIDE THE CITY. Wm. Lucas, 16 years, Poplar boulevard

Wm. Austin, 30 years, Popular boulevard.

Mrs. Walter Harris, Central avenue, Bessie Brock, 6 weeks, St. Peter's asylun

Kate L. Beehn, 16 years, Hernando row,

Wm. Weatherby, 19 years, Hernando row.

Total deaths, eight. In the city, two; one lored and one white. Outside the city,

Mrs. Maggie Pope, 24 years, 283 Hernando

WHITES.

COLORED.

Linda Meyers, 45 years, South Jackson.

OFFICE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT, HOWARD ASS'N, MEMPHIS, October 26, 1878.

Dr. Mitchell's Report.

D. Langstaff, Esq., President Howard Associa-

Number of new cases since last report, Oc-in suburbs, eight. The new cases are prinipally those who were taken sick in the ountry and brought to the city for treatment.

The following is the report of the relief cases under our care, 362.

MARCUS JONES, President.

eventh Report of the Knights of Honor Central Belief Committee.

On Sick List—Members, none; wives, 1; hildren, 2; relatives, none—3.

Convalescents—Members, 44; wives, 40;

Comparative Mertuary Table.

The following table shows the number of September

October 1.
October 2.
October 3.
October 4.
October 5.
October 7.
October 7.
October 8.

The above slows a total of 1232 deaths for the epidemic of 1878, and 3078 for the present epidemic up to 6 p.m., resterday. The total number of cases to date, as reported by the Howard association and the Board of Health, is 7158.

Notice.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT HOWARD ASSOCIATION. MEMPHIS, TENN., October 26, 1878.

heved from duty after this date. Those Appointments.

The following appointments of local phy-cians are made for the purpose of securing attention to new cases, convalescents and re

Second Ward.—J. H. Nuttall, M. D.
Second Ward.—W. B. Winn, M. D.
Third Ward.—H. Ess, M. D.
Fourth Ward.—W. C. Cavenagh, M. D.
Fifth Ward.—F. L. Sim, M. D.
Sirth Ward.—A. A. Layerne, M. D.

Sixth Ward.—A. A. Laurence, M. D.
Seventh Ward.—Heber Jones, M. D.
Eighth Ward.—S. P. Green, M. D.
Ninth Ward.—S. H. Brown, M. D.
Tenth Ward.—J. B. Abercrombie, M. D.
The above named physicians

this office on Monday, twenty-eighth instant,

at nine o'clock in the morning for instruction

Fever Notes.

Mr. William Humphreys, who returned Monday and opened the house of Arbuckle

& Tucker, preparatory to resuming business, was stricken with the fever Thursday, and is

Medical Director R. W. Mitchell, in a card published elsewhere, calls in all the visiting icians to attend the remaining sick and physicians, and has selected a list of local

Returning refugees, in many instances, di eported with a bad case.

such new cases as may appear.

The above named physicians will report to

W. MITCHELL, Medical Director

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT HOWARD Ass'n. MEMPHIS, October 26, 1878.

All members of the Howard medical corp

R. W. MITCHELL, Medical Director

MEMPHIS, October 26, 6 p.m., 1878.

L. S. BURR, Secretary.

; relatives, 9-150.

B. W. MITCHELL, Medical Director.

whose names are elsewhere published.

FINANCIAL.

was without change, but their intention, we learn, is to return to their former office-hours

COTTON.

reported flat and 1-16d less; arrivals were weaker. New York spots were 1-16c cheaper;

itures were weak, and eight to fourte points lower: Our market was dull with lows: New York, 75c; Baltimore, 72c; Phil

delphia, 73c; Providence, 80c; Boston, 80c middling, 9%c; middling, 9%c; good middling, 10%c; middling fair, 10%c.

Receipts at this port yesterday, 377 bales; receipts since Friday, 377 bales. Total receipts since September 1st, — bales; stock on hand, actual count, 5812bales. Total shipments since September 1st, — bales.

The following are the New York spot une-

The following are the New York spot quo

The Liverpool telegrams yesterder reported very light offerings. Sales were unimporta

The Liverpool spot market yesterday was

The situation among the banks yesterday

THE TELEGRAPHERS.

orrected Lists of the Dead, Convalescents and those who were Not

Stricken with the Fever

The APPRAL printed, several days ago,

the members of the families of each one w 10 ravages upon them the announcement of new case among the telegraphers was followed, in some instances, in a very few

DEAD.

CONVALESCENTS.

G. M. Baker, manager,
Howell Sigler, chief operator,
Lewis Klotz, night chief operator,
C. A. Gaston, cashier,
C. M'Reynolds, operator,
B. de Klyn, operator,
W. E. Mulford, operator,
J. M. Mullins, clerk,
H. E. Conley, repairer.

PSCAPED

ESCAPED.

George A. Putnam, operator, John B. B. Spalding, operator, N. S. Graves, operator.

Among the Families.

DEAD.

CONVALESCENT.

J. H. JOHNSTON.

283 Main Street.

Zephyr Wools,

J. H. JOHNSTON.

30% Main street,

B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS.

B. L. MEACHAN & CO.,

Salt Agents, at No. 9 Union Street.

goods at lowest figures, and make all other flour, sugar, coffee, bacon, lard, etc., and wil rience and business sagacity make him a de

Those New Hats

At Leidy's are the best and cheapest in the

To Our Friends.

Our store is open with full stock of good

HILL, FONTAINE & CO., 298 Front street,

Returning to the city last week, I was the

E. Carver Cotton-Gins.

Hill, Fontaine & Co., agents for this cele brated gin, are prepared to fill orders. The

FADER, JACOBS & CO.,

Commission Merchants, No. 204 combinations in the city. Its members were

Front Stree

Is now open with a new stock of Gents' underwear, 750 on the $1.

N. S. Graves, operator, R. Newell, clerk, esse B. Waggener, clerk.

Operator J. J. Fowler's wife, Batteryman Clemente's wife

Operator E. W. Gibson's wife.

J. I. Connelly, Thomas Hood, J. W. M'Donald, Howard Allen, J. B. Henrick, A. S. Hawkins.

hours, by the announcement of his death.

W. B. GALBREATH

W. B. Galbreath & Co.

to-morrow (Monday). Exchange in our banks quoted at 14 off buying, and selling at 14 premium on New York and other eastern cities for both demand and sight; on New Cotton Factors, Orleans, & discount buying; selling at par.

11 Union Street, Memphis

AGENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED CHAMPION COTTON GIN AND HULLER.

WENKEN BROTHERS

Would inform their Friends that they have shipped from New York THIS WEEK

1000 Packages NEW DRY GOODS

Bought at the RECENT LOW PRICES, which they will open on arrival.

The following are the New York spot quotations for yesterday: Ordinary, 734c; good ordinary, 8 11-16c; low middling, 9 5-16c; middling, 95c; good middling, 105c; middling fair, 105c. At 10:09 quiet; 12:10, quiet. Sales, 679 bales.

The tone of the future market was as follows: At 10:08, weak; 11:55, easy; 12:30, steady; 2:17, easy. Sales, 53.000 bales.

The following are the latest New York quotations for futures: January, 9.66@9.67; February, 9.77@—; March, 9.87@9.88; April, 9.97@9.98; May, 10.05@10.06; June, 10.15@—; July, 10.23@10.25; October, 9.49@9.50; November, 9.47@9.48; December, 9.57@—. Having had the advantage of Suying their FALL AND WINTER STOCK at FULLY TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. LOWER The New Orleans market yesterday closed easy at 9%c for middling. Sales, 1500 bales. Receipts, net, 721 bales. Stock, 46,249 Than those who Bought Earlier in the Senson

> ALL THE NOVELTIES IN SILKS. DRESS

Cloaks and Fancy Articles will be opened.

EXTRA INDUCEMENTS TO CASH BUYERS

MENKEN BROS.

B.J. SEMMES & CO. HAVE FOR SALE

750 Brls. "Nelson Distillery" Fire-Copper

BOURBON WHISKEY! SPRING OF 1873--'75--'76--'77

FREE AND IN BOND

GAGE & FISHER,

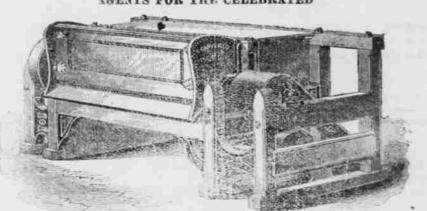

Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants. 300 FRONT STREET On and after this date our Office and Warehouse will be open. We are read, for business, and respect

a. VACCARO. B. VACCARO. S. B. VACCARO.

VACCARO & CO., IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN WINES, LIQUORS & CIGARS.

No. 324 Front street. Memphis.

HILL, FONTAINE & CO.

E. CARVER COTTON-GIN. Nos. 360 and 382 Front street, Memphis, Tenn.

WILLIAMS & CO.

Lumber, Shingles and Lath! DOORS, SASH AND BLINDS. FRUIT AND PACKING-BOXES!

OFFICE AND YARD: Corner Gavese and Second Sts. Momphis. - -

SAW-MILL AND YARD: North Front Street. Tennossee.

REMOVAL!

REMOVAL ALSTON BOYD.

A. B BOYD. A. M. BOYD & SON.

COTTON FACTORS.

Have semoved to 336 FRONT STREPT, corner Union-Rooms 6, 7 and 8, Mag-M. C. PEARCE.

PEARCE, SUGGS & CO..

WHOLESALE GROCERS. Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants

No. 258 Front street, Memphis, Tenne PARTICULAR ATTENTION PARD TO THE SALE SECUTIVE L. D. MULLINS, Jr. S. M. McCALLUM.

Cotton Factors and Commission Merchants

336 Front street, corner Union, Memphis.

Particular attention given to the handling of cotton while in shed

ROOMS AND BOARD,

M BS. R. J. BECKTEL At 431 Shelby street-offers excellent accommodations in Boom At offers excellent accommo CAPTAIN R. G. FORREST and G. W. Daite have opened a boardinghouse at SS Poplar s HAVING responed my boardinghouse. No. 69 H. Jefferson street, corner of Third, I am pre-pered to accommodate all who may favor me with their purrowage. Terms reasonable.

STRAYED.

MAIR-Bay Mare, about 14% hands high, blaz face. The finder will be liberally rewarded by ng same at my farm, six miles east of Men HUGH D. GREER. MULE—About August 25th a mouse-colored mule) about sixteen hands high, six years old, pigeoned in front. A liberal reward will be paid for his alivery to LOEWENSTINE & FOX.
117 Poplar street.

FOR BENT. BRICK HOUSE—Six rooms; $200 per annum, Next door to 382 Union street. Apply to A. RHELICH, No. 78 Marshall avenue.

LOST. CLOAK—On Sunday evening, near the Baleigh bridge, a Lady's Cloak, A liberal reward will be paid for its return to 78 and 75 MADISON STREET.

PERSONAL.

DICK JOHNSON, the old reliable house-cleaner, will pay prompt attention to any orders left for him at the APPRAL office.

FOR MALE F LOURING-MILLS and 670 Acres of Land, near Manchester, Coffee county, for sale at a great bargain. For description of property, terms, etc., address W. T. GARRETT, surviving partner of Gar-MARE-WAGON-Afine four-year-old mare, gen-tile and sound; has good saddle gatt. Also apring wagon and harness. At the Young place, M'Lean avenuc. JOHN REID. HUBE ENGINE A steam fire-engine; second-hand; in good condition; Cincinnati make; a

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

OW-On Monday, October 7th, a large, dark red cow, heavy with calf. She has the top of the loft ear cut off and swallow fork, and on the right ear an underhit. She had with her a white helfer alf, brown about ears and eyes, and a brown spot on each side of the neck. A liberal reward is offered their return to the stationhouse.
 JOHN M'PARTLAND, 323 Madison extended. WANTS.

75 to W. M. WILSON. At Carver Gin Company, Shelby street. *OTTAGE—To rent a small cottage, in center of / city, with gas and water. Must be in good repair and rent cheap. Address "J. F. D.," Care of APPEAL office. DOARDINGHOUSE—A house furnished, or parily so, suitable for a first-class boardinghouse. Must be centrally located, and at reasonable rates. References given if required. Address "K. D.,"

Care APPEAL office. WANTED—Situations by two young men, one as book-keeper the other as clerk. Have had exprinence and can give best of recommendations. I dress J. H. M., Lock box 1060, Xenia, Ohio. 1 TUATION—A merchant wants to take charge of and manage a first-class business when the fever over. Can give both ability and money. Address a KMPHIAN, Duff Green house, Dalton, Georgia.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

-Read Menken Brothers card. -There will be services at the Georgia street Methodist church at eleven o'clock this morning. Services at the Central Baptist church.

eleven o'clock this morning, by the pastor, -The employes of the Mississippi and Tennessee railway received their September salar es vesterdas -Services will be held this morning, at eleven o'clock, at the Park avenue Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. John S. —The following cabin passengers of the Grand Tower got off here yesterday: D. C. M'Dougall, Elias M'Dougall and Hugh -Divine service at the Sixth street Methodist Episcopal church, Fort Pickering, this morning at eleven o'clock, by the pastor, -Mansford has just received a large lot of writing paper, and also has all the latest papers always on hand. Mourning paper a peciality. Give him a call.

-Trains commence running regularly on the Paducah road to-morrow evening, as will be seen by Mr. Monsaratt's card. The man--There were ten arrests made by the police yesterday; four for disorderly conduct, two frunks, one for assault and abusive language, one suspicious character, and one for receiving goods under false pretenses.

-Rev. George C. Harris, dean, will conduct services at St. Mary's cathedral at halfpast seven o'clock in the morning and five Main street. At his cosy little news depot he has received all the magazines for November; he has also received a large lot of Seasides and Franklin Square Library. Cheapest reading in the world. Give Billy a buy extensively in Memphis, as experienced —Get your Sunday reading matter from Mansford. He has Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly, Police News, Police Gazette, and all the northern dailies, and a large lot of Lakeside and Seaside Libraries pen from ten o'clock in the morning to one o'clock in -One of our Second street merchants, who has been rusticating in north Alabama since the commencement of the late "unpleasantness," writes to a friend as follows: "I wish you to write me by return mail if it is prudent or me to return to Memphis. Of course I am anxious to get back, but would hate to have the 'luck of a young calf,'-'live all winter and die in the spring.'" -There was an ammense gathering o couple of individuals, one of whom was Mr. Henry Moode, the other this chronicler, in editorial rooms of the APPEAL, yester-There were no speeches, no wine, no cake, no nothing, except a neat and pretty little Malacca walking cane, which the former presented the latter, and the crowd dispersed, the silence of the occasion being elegaent of the motives which prompted the ransaction. If we have ever said anything we are sorry for we are glad of it.

-List of undelivered telegrams remaining the telegraph office. Office hours from J. B. Prestidge, Geo. T. Meyers,
Hon. Claser Young,
J. W. Spears,
Miss Mary E. O'Connor,
Rev. David Mead,
Estes, Doan & Co.,
W. Y. C. Humes,
W. J. Chase & Co.,
Dr. G. W. Tucker.

PERSONALS.

READ Menken Brothers advertisement. Hon. Jesse Brown was about the city T. M. WARD, cotton-buyer, has returned G. W. FISHER, the Madison street sewingnachine agent, has returned. Mrs. R. A. Thompson is still in Brooklyn, New York, the guest of friends. CAPTAIN JAMES T. BOURNE, the cotton reight agent, was in town yesterday.

TOM SHERWOOD, of Wheeler, Pickens & Co., has come home, looking healthy. AARON D. ALLEN, of the Memphis and Charlestou railroad, has come in again. W. D. STRATTON and George Paine will tions during the illness of her sister, Mrs. GEORGE HAGERMAN will confer a favor by leaving his address at the APPEAL office.

MRS. B. WALKER. MR. T. B. HAYNES, of T. B. Haynes & ward they so justly deserve from a higher Co., will reopen their cotton office on Mon-

MR. JOHN WAYNESBURG informs us that the Memphis oil works will resume work Joe Woodson, cotton salesman with ard whisky. Fader, Jacobs & Co., returned to the city

Louis awaiting official authority to return to Memphis. WM. BENJES, the mill and gin man, is in town again, getting his gin ready for full work in a day or two. C. A. HARRISON returned Friday, and has street, have reopened their bindery and jo

rom New York as far as Louisville, where ney will spend a few days before returning THOMAS VANCE, of Johnston & Vance, the ell-known clothiers, of No. 305 Main street, is reopened that house, and is now ready

R. A. Lythe ha starned to the city and ened the grocery house of Lytle & Shields.

Mrs. Lytle and the fifteen-pound baby are in T. M. M'KEE bas reopened J. H. John-ston's store, 283 Main street. Within ten ays the dictators will have returned and tel what to do. Son Consman has had his eight store ened. He will be back in a few days and sen there will be some life in the cigar and

T. N. PATTON, superintendent of the ransfer company, is in Memphis once more, retting his omnibusses and wagons ready or a big business.

SENOR PEDRO A. AVLER, one of the mos fficient yellow-fever nurses who visited demphis during the epidemic, returns to his ome in Pittsburg (Pa.) to-morrow. J. P. Dunk, the veteran, has kept the case of Treadwell & Co. open through the pidemic. He is one of the "old guard," deserves honorable mention. MR. THOMAS SHERWOOD, of Wheeler ickens & Co., returned yesterday, and will oen his establishment with a full and com-ete stock of wood and willow-ware to JASON L. BOURNE is now able to sit up aree or four hours a day, and is gradually aproving, having been sick twenty-seven ys. Edward Bourne's eidest son, Edward, has recovered. His youngest son, Alex-

MESSRS, RIDDLE and HUNTER, of New Or. ans, who have been at Grand Junction durg the epidemic, paid a flying visit to this ty yesterday. They will return to duty this corning, as their valuable services cannot as at be dispensed with.

Anyone who knows anything of James Hamburg will confer a favor by informing s brother, T. E. Hamburg, of Dalton, Geora. He was in Memphis as late as Septem-er seventh, and it is feared that he died ith the yellow-fever. COLONEL MIKE BURKE, superintendent of e Mississippi and Tennessee railroad, will rive in the city Monday, and make prepaation to resume the running of trains regu-arly in a few days. Mr. C. P. Russell, his orivate secretary, arrived yesterday. GEORGE J. CAMPBELL; deputy clerk, has opened the circuit court clerk's office, and will be there to attend to all business connected with the court from nine o'clock in the morning to four in the evening. The urt will meet the first Monday in Novemis sincere thanks to Dr. Pitman for his kind of transient brothers and wives died, 10. The treatment and attention to him during his tal number of deaths, 189. Brothers convaluately dames H. Kelly, colored, as they both deserve. Mr. Nelson has been delivering milk free of charge to the needy of the yellow-ever suffers. Lem Crisp and grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Norton, return thanks to Dr. Purnell and the Howard association, especially Messrs. Sim-mons, Frank Frierson, Harrison, and Dachille, nurse, for attentions shown them while sick. May God bless and reward them all, is the devont wish of LEMUEL L. CRISP. ANSLEY ARNOLD has been one of Ethe few neroes who has stood nobly at his post. During the epidemic he has been in charge of Taylor & Arnold's establishment, No. 272 ront street, and has managed everything to rs. He is still at his port, ready to attend o any business that may be intrusted to the MR. JOHN BRENNER, who was an active to our generous hearted brethren abroad for worker of the Knights of Honor until he was stricken down at his post of duty, is up again after a severe tussle with the prevailing disease. His wife, Mrs. Barber Brenner, who successfully many larger than the control of their aid and sympathy in our great distress. In O. M. A.

F. P. Parscorr, Secretary. uccessfully nursed her husband and three hildren, and who at last was stricken down erself, is doing well, and will, we hear, be THE genial face of Superintendent Emile LaHache, of Cotton News association, is ll seen on Madison street. In his easy and quiet way he has done much good dur-ing the epidemic. In one instance, at his brother in-law's house, he nursed ten perons, including his wife, and, like an old warorse, he battled through the disease withut having been sick. DR. JOSEPH YATES, of Charleston, South arolina, returns home to-morrow. The octor has been unceasing in his labors with he Howard medical corps since his arrival here early in the epidemic, and by his prompt sponse to every call and his skill in the warm friends and proven himself thorough in his profession. Dr. Yates is not only a good physician, but is an orator of consider. I. N. SNOWDEN is once more in charge of the immense boot and shoe house of Friedo'clock in the afternoon. There will be a man Bros., which is now prepared to fill all sermon at eleven o'clock by Rev. Dr. Dalzell orders. The store has been open in a small orders. The store has been open in a small -Billy Lieben still holds the fort at 236% | way during the entire epidemic, but the quarantines interferred with them. No use in the south or west can offer greater eatment of yellow-fever, has won many oe dealers, and are among the most enterrising and worthy cittzens. GENERAL R. P. NEELY, one of the direcrs of the New Orleans, St. Louis and Chi ago railway, has the thanks of the APPEAL or favors. The general was in Nashville in ttendance on the State Democratic convenion at the breaking out of the fever, and pent the remainder of the season with his amily, at Bon Acqua springs, where we are dad to know he enjoyed excellent health. The fever at Bolivar, however, mourning into his family by the death of his son-in-law, Dr. A. A. Coleman, and granddaughter, Miss Lizzie Coleman, aged sixteen

F. M. WHITE & Co., wholesale grocers and cotton-factors, 330 Front street, have had their house open during the entire epi-demic, except when Mr. Yonge, who had charge of the business, was sick. The memers of the firm are first-class cotton men, who can get as good price for the staple as any one who handles it. They fill orders promptly and satisfactorily, and have hosts friends in the surrounding country. Their stock of groceries is complete. F. M. White & Co. are among the most reliable, and deserve the extensive business they annually

Dr. J. G. Davis, of Lincoln, Nebraska, who came to Memphis, and was sent to Water Valley by the Howards, was presented a gold medal by the citizens of that place in token of their appreciation of his services.

On the bar from which the medal is suspended is the word "Howard." On the medal the following inscription: "Presented to J. G. Davis, volunteer Howard physician, by the citizens of Water Valley, Mississippi, for his noble, untiring and proficient work among our yellow-fever sufferers. Water Valley, Mississippi, 1878."

heved from duty after this date. Those quarantined from their homes are requested to remain in the city as guests of the Howard association.

R. W. MITCHELD, Medical Director.

H. B. Howell & Co. bave a card on our first page, announcing that their cotton office is now open. Their store has never been closed for any considerable time during the pidemic, and the opening of their cotton office completes their organization for the busi-ness campaign. They have a good stock of groceries and plantation supplies, and can handle cotton as successfully as anybody in the trade. Mr. Howell has been in business a great many years and has the confidence d respect of all who have ever shipped cotton to or bought groceries of him.

Among the noble, true and brave who have ministered to the sick and distressed are Colonel C. Weatherford and George B. Peters, With untiring efforts they have labored night and day, never fearing the terrible conse-quences. For their prompt and kind attening that when the length of year; shall make hem tired of earthly joys and pleasures, that ere may be as kind hearts and willing hands to serve them, and may receive the re power above. LOCAL NOTICES.

Greenbrier, Robertson county, is the stand ader, Jacobs & Co., returned to the city ment of J. W. X. Browne is now regularly open. Orders promply attended to. Our friends Royster, Waldran & Bacon will give prompt attention to all real estate cover that their residences have been robbed of all valuables during their absence. Mrs. Scott, mother of Mr. Burke Scott, found her business, and will give special attention to the auction business PRICE, JONES & Co., No. 12 Jefferson house broken open, and even the marble slabs had been taken from the furniture. B. Johnson, a citizen of Charleston, South Carolina, in charge of the undertaker's shop recepened the grocery store of C. R. Ryan & printing office, and are prepared to fill all at Brownsville, writes to the APPEAL complete to fill all plimenting Mayor McGrath, Robert Peebles. CHARLES C. MERZ, the boot and shoe maker of 416 Shelby street, is at present in charge of Marsh & Co.'s store at 347 Main

FRITZ AEHLE, of 316½ Main street, has kept his saloon open during the entire epidemic, and from day to day will have the capacities to the plague-stricken people of that place.

FRITZ AEHLE, of 316½ Main street, has kept his saloon open during the entire epidemic, and from day to day will have the plague-stricken people of that place. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Davis have returned all of his old friends. Much credit is due to J. M. Johnson, relief committee of the Knights of Honor, for NEAR THE END. his efficient services as commissary of the committee during a long period. His constant attention to his duties entitles him to great praise from the members and their Only I'wo Deaths from Yellow Fever in He should be remembered hereafter by all of them. Sam Wells was in from Raleigh yesterday and made the following report. James Coleman is considered out of danger, Miss Lizzie Steddard some better, Miss Nuckles is still vesy sick, James Ralston and the other three eral others have been stricken down, and in in the King house are all doing well, and order to perpetuate a correct history of the also Mr. John Aney. No new cases and no ravages of the pestilence among them, we deaths either in Raleigh or Cedar Grove. have to append a revised list, together with The noward Association Getting Ready Mr. Atwood is much better.

We are under obligations to Mr. J. Edgar | were stricken, died and convalesced, as we | yrd, Howard superintendent of nurses at | were able to procure last night. Among the ollierville, for accurate details of the rav- heroes of the epidemic none are deserving of and quotations remained unchanged, as state ages of the epidemic in that place, at the more praise than the brave members of the below. The new freight schedule same time must apologize to our readers for | telegraphic fraternity who remained at their | pressed cotton to the east from date, is as t its non-appearance in this issue, owing to the crowded condition of our columns. It will death to do so, as when the fever begun its ppear in Tuesday morning's APPRAL. To Messrs. W. E. Ramsey, engineer, and F. M'Caulief, conductor, on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, the Howard associa- We append the lists: tion and your correspondent return many thanks for favors extended. When President Langstaff initiated the movement of supply-ing the country towns with medical aid and res, those two brave men were the only fellow Jack. The statistics of yesterday are fair indication that that is the only thing eeded to bring about a result that all most nes that could be found to perform the perous undertaking of succoring the sick and after by home nurses and resident doctors, alleviating the wants of the destitute by running the train. Neither of these gentlemen had ever had the fever, but as their fellow-men needed their valuable and indispensable services, they never thought of their own safety, and for more than two weeks, night and day, have been running into the very jaws of death. Their noble and self-sacriing acts will long be held in remembrance by the thousands they have been the instruments of saving from an untimely end. The Jackson (Miss.) Clarion has had sad experience with the epidemic, which is related in a late issue, as follows: "Four brave young men, Messrs. William M'Cat-lum, Samuel Knight, Samuel Barr and B. G. Beaullieu, when the yellow-fever excite ment commenced agreed to see us through in the publication of the Clarion, God willing, come what might. William M'Callum was one of the first to succumb to the de-stroyer. Next, Samuel Knight was stricken down, and has pulled through after a hard tober, 25th, at six p.m. (fifteen physicians reporting) sixteen; within the city limits, eight; writhing in the toils of the monster, with writhing in the toils of the monster, with uncertain fate. Young Beaullieu alone of the four remains unscathed and is on duty. Mr. Beaullieu, sr., another attache, in add tion to his labor as pressman, has done yeo man service as nurse, ministering to the sick. Our office has been reinforced by Captain J. W. Fite and Mr. Wallace Wood, and we ommittee, of October 26th: Total number of trust that we will still be able to weather rothers of city lodges died, 76; total number | the storms, which, from the signs, has well of wives died, 30; total number of families of brothers of city lodges died, 73; total number of transient brothers and wives died, 10. To-THE PRESS.

Revised Lists of the Dead, Convalescents, and those who Escaped the Ecver in Each of the Newspaper Offices in the City.

In our efforts to make the APPEAL a corect and reliable record of the terrible events the epidemic, we present to-day a carefully The following statement is from our books led and accurate list of those of the Number of Cases—Members, 134; wives, 1; children, 98; relatives, 28. Total, 321. Deaths—Members, 90; rives, 20; children, attaches of each of the newspaper offices in the city who were stricken with the fever, ied, convalesced, and escaped, up to the Received last night frest shad, celery and children, 65; relatives, 19—168. Tetal, 321.

The above speaks for itself, as to the present condition of the members of our order and story, and need no comments from us: their families. Again we tender our thanks

APPEAU OFFICE. COUNTING-BOOM. George W. Woods, temporary book-keeper. COMPOSING-BOOM. Maj. W. G. Stephenson, J. B. Barker,
B. F. Fuller,
James F. Cummins,

M. N. Cutting,
L. M. Lorentz,
Charles M. Smith
George Beamish. PRESS-ROOM John Kelly, sr., John Kelly, jr., James Kelly, M. Virgeson, Andy Harrington Convalescents. COUNTING-BOOM. Frank Backus

W. S. Brooks H. E. Crandall, John B. Hoskins, W. W. Stephenson, T. D. Uzell, H. J. M'Grann, (foreman.) PRESS-ROOM. FAMILIES.

W. S. Brooks's mother, wife and son dead. Major stephenson's two daughters dead and o onvalescent.

B. N. Cutting's wife convalescent.
George W. Woods's wife convalescent.
H. M. Crowell's daughter dead and wife and son navales ent. W. W. Stephenson's wife and two children con-Ed Schiller's son dead and daughter convalescent H. J. M'Grann's daughter dead, wife, son and H. P. Woodlock's daughter convalescent. Frank and Al Plummer's father, mother, and two isters dead, and brother and sister convalescent. Darlus Brooks's sister dead and mother conva-

Byron Brocks's son dead and wife convalescent. Kinch Virgeson's wife convalescent. Andy Harrington's wife dead. J. M. Keating, editor, Henry Moode, composite Recapitulation. Total employes dead.
Total employes convalescent Total members of families dead.
Total members of families convalescent.

AVALANCHE OFFICE. Dead. B. A. Thompson, business manager EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT. George Landrum COMPOSITION BOOM. James Cruickshank, James M. Banksmith John Crabb. Augustus Anderson, Charles Case. PORTER. Mike Corrigan. CARRIERS. Convalescents. COMPOSITION ROOM.

Louis Rosselle, Joe Crabb, Denny Sullivan, Ed Case, COUTTING-ROOM. J. C. Price. L. W. Bruder. es, Mr. Crabb has seven men to Mr. Wheles's wife and child, ESCAPED. assigned within the city of Memphis are re-

LEDGER OFFICE. COMPOSITION-ROOM. Convalescents. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT. J. H. Mathes. COUNTING ROOM. E. Whitmore. JOB ROOM.

Ed B. Holland. COMPOSITION ROOM. T. P. Kavanaugh. John Burns. PRESS ROOM. ESCAPED. John R. Grehan FAMILIES CONVALESO 8. L. Reneau's three daughter -Misses Lulu, Maggie and Jane, Becapitulation

Winter Hats N. J. Wiggin, Hatter, moved back to his old stand, No. 30

A Card. A Grateful Family, to Dr. Granville Dowell: On the twenty-third of September last, my daughter, Mrs. Mollie E. Bleck, was taken with the yellow-fever I called in Dr. G. Dowell, who so kindly and attentively watched over her, administering his skill as a yellow-fever doctor. We are satisfied that had it not been for his superior knowledge and masterly handling of the case, she cer-Recapitulation. tainly would not have survived. I deem this as my duty to the public. May the doctor live long, to relieve who ever may be so lucky as to fall into his hands. MRS. MOLLIE E. BLECK, JACOB STEINKUHL. MEMPHIS, October 28, 1878. W. H. Blalock, Henry Stillman, bill poste LEIDY deals in furs as . Il as hats, at No.

Allen Avery (col.), eng'n J. H. Mathes's wife.
W. H. Blaiock's wife and child.
John R. Grehan's wife.
Larry Grehan's wife and child.
T. P. Holland's wife and two daughters—Misse

Woolen and Flannel Sacks r ladies, misses and children, cheap, at LEUBRIK BROS And mininery goods, very low, at LEUBRIK BROS.

Main street, under the Peabody hotel. He

Notice to Ladies. I will reopen my bleaching establishment November 3d, with all the fall style nat and bonnet shapes. W. GOODYEAR. For Something Nice hear from their frieads.

about ten days. In the meantime, Mr. Sugarman, who is in charge there, will fill all orders received. Mr. Booker has been in Memphis several days, and has the business serve a larger patronage. in full blast at their new quarters. With a large stock of flour, bacon, lard, sugar, and all other articles usually kept by first-class grocers, and the best facilities for handling Cottage Gingerbread. gether; add one cup of New Orleans molasses; stir into this one cup each of sugar cotton, Fader, Jacobs & Co. would be glad to and cold water, two large teaspoonfuls ginger, two eggs beaten, and four cups of > ly hot oven.

the market flat and irregular; middling uplands, 5 15-16d; Orleans, 6%d. Sales, 5000 bales. Receipts, 9900 bales. Liverpool arrivals opened weaker sellers at previous prices: October, 5 15-16@ 5 29-32d; October-November, 5 19-32d; November-December, 5½d; December-January, 5¼d; January-February, 5 17-32d.

Receipts at United States ports since Friday, 22,759 bales; exports to Great Britain, 15,189 bales; exports to continent, 12,242 bales. Stocks at all United States ports 399 020 bales. and all kinds of fancy materials for ladies GENERAL TRADE. The weather yesterday was warm and Unlaundried shirts, better than ever, 85 cloudy. Business-notwithstanding the re-turn of a large number of merchants, and that stores are being reopened-is and wil for a short time be very dull. But we hope to chronicle within the next ten days the return of most of the refugees and the reopen ing of business. We repeat former quota as nominally unchanged: Corn-there were 300 sacks, second-hand, of mixed shelled sold at No. 283 Main Street 50c; shelled, 55@60c; ear, 55c. Oats, 40@45c Bran-wheat bran, 85@90c; corn bran. 70 LEIDY, the Main street hatter, is opening Hay—choice timothy, 90c per cwt. Meal, from store, $2 60@2 75 per barrel. Flour, $4 @6 25. Potatoes were firm at $2 50. Sweet potatoes were dull, at $1 50@1 75. Beans were steady at $1 75. Onions, $2 50@2 75. Magnolia Restaurant, Cabbages were in fair demand at $4 died, convalesced, and escaped, up to the present date. The lists embrace all, from the press-room to the editorial room, together with accurate details of the ravages of the disease in the families of each one, as far as could be obtained for the present issue of the Armyr These records tell their own at the courage of the disease in the families of each one, as far as could be obtained for the present issue of the Armyr QUENTAL, Proprietor.

Received last night frest shad, celery and oysters and will be can at sixty-five cents, and will be cheaper by the middle of next week. Open day and night.

Received last night frest shad, celery and oysters served in any style; sold by the can at sixty-five cents, and will be cheaper by the middle of next week. Open day and night.

Received last night frest shad, celery and oysters cents, and will be completed for the present issue of the day and night.

Received last night frest shad, celery and oysters and will be per crate. Apples were dull, $2 50@3 50.

Dried Fruit—apples, 3½ 65c. Butter—common, 12½ @15c; medium, 16@18c; fair, 20c; choice, 25c per pound. Chickens continued in fair demand at $2 50@3 50; old hens at $4. Eggs were steady at 15@17c per dozen To B. Lowenstein & Bros. Employes, ions-clear bacon sides, packed, 6%@ 6%c; clear rib sides, packed, 616@6%c; clear bacon shoulders, packed, 5366c; clear pork sides, loose, 5366c; clear rib pork, loose Having resumed business in Memphis, we 5%@5%c; mess pork, $10@10 50; sugar-cured hams, packed, 12@13c; breakfast ba-can, packed, 9@9%c. Lard, tierces, 8c; hereby inform all our employes that their /BY TELEGRAPH The following is Friday's exchange report of the domestic markets: State of | Price. | Market, | Rec'pts. | Middling

Wholesale Grecers, Cotton Factors and Here is a firm that knows all about the grocery business. The senior member has been in it a great many years, and the other nembers have been raised up in it. They buy in great quantities, pay cash, get their arrangements necessary to enable them to sell goods at the very lowest prices. They

Good News! Good News! now have their immense store filled with For the Ladies of Memphis. fill orders promptly. The cotton department is in the hands of a gentleman whose expe-The house of B. Lowenstein & Bros. is now open for the transaction of business. If you sirable person in whose hands to place the staple. Every country merchant should look through Meacham & Co.'s stock. cannot visit us in person, your orders shall receive our prompt and careful attention. Go to Leidy's hat store, No. 27316 Main street, for the latest styles. AI BERT H. VENN has made prrangement to disinfect houses for absentees, and we, the undersigned, recommend him as a trust-at lowest figures. We are prepared to handle cotton and make liberal advances thereon. S. A. TAYLOR, ED SCHLOSS, A. D. LANGSTAFF. For terms, apply to No. 194 Main street, Will Wonders Never Cease? only occupant of a coach until it reached within fifty miles of the city, when a lady passenger entered and found me smoking a Will be open on next Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week, and every day Clarke, Johnson & Co. fifteen cents cigar. When the conductor came to collect her fare, she requested him to stop that smoking. Imagine my astonishment when she pulled out an old stone pipe A COLORED ORPHAN ASYLUM and asked me for a match to light her pipe. Her smoke made me move to the other end Permanently Organized - Election of of the coach. The conductor again enters Officers and Board of Directors the car, takes in the situation at a glance A Good Selection. and comes over to me with a fine cigar. "Will you smoke, sir?" I light his cigar and find it delicious, and when I asked him Several of the most prominent colored citwhere he bought it, he answered at Harp-man & Bro.'s, No. 286 Main street, next to Oliver, Finnie & Co., for five dollars a box. ens met at Avery Chapel, Friday, at thre o'clock in the afternoon, to confirm the nom inations made by the committee on perma nent organization, which resulted in the election of Edward Shaw, president; J. E. Glass first vice-president; J. A. Thompson, second vice-president; C. C. Dickerson, third vice E. Carver gin is generally conceded to be the best in use. It is strong, runs easy, and president; D. W. Washington, recording see retary; Rev. A. Brinkley, corresponding stretary; Robert Lee, treasurer. Board Trustees—Edward Shaw, Rev. T. M. Conne Wesley Ware, James Lott, Johnson Reed, W. Purnell, H. M. Settles, Rev. A. Holme D. W. Washington and Robert Lee. The board of supervisors is to cone pastors of the various colored in the city. The following constitutes the present board: Rev. Page Tyler, Rev. 1 Nelson Countee, Rev. M'Connell, Rev. 2 Holmes, Nev. J. S. Shields, Rev. A. Brinkly Rev. Dr. Jay, Rev. George H. Jackson, Rev. W. W. Mallory, Rev. Ridley, Rev. D. A Hutchins, Rev. H. Meredith, Rev. George Robertson, Rev. James Lott and Rev. H Primm. After the confirmation of the officers, Mr. Shaw made a few brief remarks reopened and are ready for business with a large and fresh stock of gentlemen's, Indies and children's fancy boots and shoes. Mr Charley Merz will be happy to see and attend to all customers. Wholesale Grecers, Cotton Factors and W. B. GALBREATH & CO. A Leading Cotton Factorage and Com-The above named firm has shown itself to mission House, with Capital, Integbe one of the most efficient and enterprising

Memphis, so they opened an office in St. Louis, where they could sell cotton for those who wanted it sold immediately. From St. who wanted it sold immediately and largeling and largeli that has been earned by liberal dealing v cotton, and prompt and faithful attention t Louis they shipped groceries, bagging and plantation supplies to points that could not business and social circles, Messrs. Galbreath be supplied from Memphis. But the fever has sufficiently subsided to enable them to fill up and open their elegant new house, 294

Front, near Madison, where they will be ness, and give satisfaction to their customers. pleased to have all shipments of cotton consigned. The St. Louis office will be closed in they are now fully prepared to sell cotton of fill orders for their country friends. No firm makes more liberal advances, and none de-flour, having in it three large teaspoonfuls of a.m. to 2 p.m. Goodlett & Co., 282 Front st.

after which the association adjourned to meet at three o'clock, Tuesday, October 29th, a MARSH & Co., No 347 Main street, hav rity and Experience. determined that their customers should not Take one cup of butter and lard melted to-

Dooley's yeast powder. Bake in a moderate-To Our Customers and Friends. Our office and cotton-shed is open from 10

To cover your head with, go to Leidy's.